(b)(7)(C)

The following investigation was conducted by Special Agent [redacted] on October 22, 1970:

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[redacted] National Academy of Sciences (NAS), advised that her records show that Dr. DETLEV WULF BRONK has been a member of the NAS since 1939 and is a lifetime member in good standing. Applicant is currently chairman of an NAS Committee "Study of the Utilization of Young Scientists and Engineers in Advisory Services to the Government." Applicant also was a former president of the NAS and is invited to the meetings of the NAS Council held every other month. This is the governing board of the NAS.

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[redacted] has known applicant for the [redacted] years and knows him very well both professionally and personally. He has the highest regards for applicant and knows that the latter enjoys an outstanding reputation and is greatly respected through the scientific community. It is his impression that applicant is not only a most capable and intelligent person but also very energetic and alert to the "soul of discretion." [redacted] knows of no reason to question applicant's character, associates, reputation or loyalty. He recommends applicant for a position of trust and confidence.

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[redacted] NAS, was interviewed in a previous investigation in 1967. He advised on reinterview that he has continued to see applicant fairly frequently and he continues to have a very high regard for him. His comments would be the same and he continues to recommend applicant for a position of trust and confidence. [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] NAS, has known applicant for many years and continues to see him at least [REDACTED] times a year at meetings of the NAS Council and other professional meetings. [REDACTED] applicant a highly intelligent and capable person and one who enjoys great prestige and esteem. He knows of absolutely nothing adverse to applicant and recommends for a position of trust and confidence.

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] NAS, has known applicant for many years and continues to see him on occasions. He knows applicant to be a very capable, energetic, and dedicated person and also one he considers a true "elder statesman of Science." He has been constantly amazed at applicant's energy and drive and continued effectiveness. In his opinion, applicant is one of the preminent scientists in the United States. [REDACTED] the highest regard for applicant personally and he knows of nothing unfavorable to him. He recommends applicant without qualification for a position of trust and confidence.

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] NAS, has had considerable contact with applicant in the past [REDACTED] in connection with [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] Applicant was chairman of that committee and has been very active and generous in the contribution of his time. He has impressed [REDACTED] as a very dedicated individual and one who is well

Universities Research Association
Washington, D.C.

On October 19, 1970, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] URA, advised that the appointee in his former capacity as President of Rockefeller University in New York was one of the incorporating trustees of URA, which is incorporated in the District of Columbia. He explained that URA is a <sup>COOPERATIVE</sup> corporation effort on the part of a group of universities, each of which is represented by its president, which is building a nuclear accelerator in south Illinois. The appointee, in his former capacity of President, National Academy of Sciences, was instrumental in the early organizational phases of URA. [REDACTED]

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] saw the appointee frequently, but has had little contact with him since he ceased to be President of Rockefeller University a few years ago, and thereby was no longer a member of the Council.

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

[REDACTED] extremely favorable impression of the appointee and feels that his loyalty, associations, reputation and character are the very highest. He would recommend him without qualification for the most sensitive positions for which he might be considered.

(b)(7)(C)
(b)(7)(D)

On October 19, 1970, [REDACTED]

[REDACTED] URA advised that he had known the appointee quite well during the formation of URA. He has not had much recent contact with the appointee since his membership on the Council of URA terminated, but he <sup>REMAINS</sup> retains his high opinion of the appointee's character, reputation, associations and loyalty. He has no reservations concerning the appointee whatsoever, and he did recommend him highly and as entirely suitable for sensitive positions at the highest levels of Government service.

National Headquarters, Selective Service System

On October 19, 1970. [REDACTED]

(b)(7)
(b)(7)

[REDACTED] He knew the appointee well and recalled his characteristics of mature judgement and sound scientific background. He has nothing but the highest praise for the appointee and feels that his character, loyalty, reputation and associates are in keeping with the highest standards and not subject to question. He would recommend the appointee highly for any position.

(b)(7)
(b)(7)

[REDACTED] National Headquarters of the Selective Service System has recently undergone extensive reorganization and he does not believe that the Scientific Advisory Group is now in existence.

On October 19, 1970. [REDACTED]

(b)(7)
(b)(7)

[REDACTED] advised that the Scientific Advisory Group was dissolved approximately one month ago. The appointee, who was a member of that group, now has no connection with the Selective Service System. His service was appreciated by Selective Service and his conduct and competence would not be subject to question. He is known for his scientific qualities and solid judgement. Although not personally acquainted, [REDACTED] knows of no information which would reflect adversely on his character, loyalty, reputation or associates and feels that he would be entirely suitable for Government service in a sensitive area.

(b)(7)
(b)(7)

[REDACTED] the personnel record for the appointee previously maintained by Selective Service has been destroyed rather than being sent to the Federal Record Center.
